

[2] The Respondent confirmed that it would require some time for its expert to review the Claimant's expert's report and to decide whether a responding expert report will be necessary. This will be reviewed at the next CMC. It is premature to consider holding an expert evidence hearing until the Respondent knows whether it will require its own expert to prepare a responding report and to testify.

[3] The next CMC will be held by teleconference on May 22, 2018, at 12:00 P.M., Eastern Time (Ottawa).
